Dear Mr. Son and the Board of Directors,

My name is _____. I am a shareholder of DiDi Global Inc. ("DiDi"). I urge SoftBank, as a 21.5% DiDi shareholder, to encourage DiDi's Board to pursue a listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

DiDi trades only over-the-counter (OTC) on the "pink sheets" in the U.S. This excludes it from every major global index, severely limits institutional demand, and results in a substantial discount to its true value. This also does not benefit Softbank shareholders.

SoftBank could finally sell part or all of its approximate $3.3 billion stake in Hong Kong a liquid market instead of being stranded in illiquid shares on OTC. This benefits SoftBank's own shareholders.

I urge the Chairman and the Board to advocate for this listing, aligned with the Chinese government's policy of Chinese issuers listing their shares closer to home.

Sincerely,
